O God, be our Light when it is dark, our Way when we are lost, our Hope when we despair, our Purpose when we feel useless, our Strength when we are weak. We await you this Advent, Jesus Christ, preparing ourselves so there is room in our inn, space in our hearts, when you arrive. Receive our love and devotion in this season and make of us instruments of your tender mercies. In Jesus' name we pray...

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen

Anthem

Es ist ein Ros' entsprungen

arr. Donald Cashmore (1926-2013)

Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming from tender stem hath spring!
Of Jesse's lineage coming as men of old have sung,
It came, a floweret bright,
Amid the cold of winter,
When half spent was the night.

Isaiah 'twas foretold it, the Rose I have in mind,
With Mary we behold it, the Virgin Mother kind.
To show God's love a right,
She bore to men a Savior,
When half spent was the night.

This Flower, whose fragrance tender with sweetness fills the air,
Dispels with glorious splendor the darkness everywhere.
True man, yet very God,
From sin and death He saves us
And lightens every load

Children are always welcome in the sanctuary! We appreciate the sounds of little ones among us. If you'd prefer, there are trained caregivers in our nursery on the floor beneath the sanctuary. Ask a greeter if you need help finding it.

Family Room

There is also a comfortable room outfitted with a changing table, toys, rocking chairs, couches, a water bubbler and a video link to the service for when you need more room to attend to your family. It is located just outside the doors to the right of the front chancel area.

Stepping Stones

This week our children are reading 2:5-18; 3:1-6; 8:1-17. They are learning how God works through us and uses us to do his wonderful works and to change people's hearts. Talk with your children this week about how you can celebrate God's love and care as a family. Here is a prayer to say together: Thank you, God, for brave heroes like Esther. Help us learn to stand up and speak our faith where needed. AMEN.

Middle School

In our class this week, our lesson comes from 2 Corinthians 4:1-12. It teaches us how God uses ordinary, fragile, often broken people like us to reveal Jesus to the world. The youth will be challenged to examine how they are like jars of clay that hold a great treasure. They'll also look at how their choices can help or hinder their ability to shine the light of God. Be sure to ask your youth how they see or don't see God in others or themselves.

Forum

This week's story is the story of a poor woman who gave all she had from Mark 12:41-44. It's not the face value of what we do or offer Jesus that matters most. It's the sacrifice/heart behind it. Students will be challenged to consider that the state of their hearts toward God can be seen in what they do with the ordinary—do they love sacrificially? I encourage you to ask them what kind of things they find difficult to hand over to God.

Second Wednesday Bible Study

The second Wednesday this month is the 11th. Since we are in the season of Advent, we will look at the nine "lessons" traditionally read on Christmas Eve:

1. Genesis 3:8-19
2. Genesis 22:15-18
3. Isaiah 9:2; 6-7
4. Isaiah 11:1-3a; 6-9
5. Luke 1:26-35; 38
6. Luke 2:1; 3-7
7. Luke 2:8-16
8. Matthew 2:1-12
9. John 1:1-14

By themselves they tell the progression of the nativity. We are going to be looking and listening for the questions, and the answers each reading offers. They are not long - and we might add a little music. As always, each session is entire unto itself which means you can join us when it suits your schedule and not worry about not knowing what everyone else knows. We all know that God loves us and that God desires our love. We try to discern the ways we can do that. We meet in the Health Ministry Office at 7:00 p.m. and end promptly at 8:30.

Advent Women's Gathering,

All women of the church are invited to an evening of fellowship and centering as we embrace the tastes, textures, and tones of the season. Join us THIS Monday, December 9th from 7 to 8:30 pm in the Tucker-Palmer Rooms. An Advent Tradition sure to warm the heart!
