The Call to Worship (“Calm the Storm in Me” by Lisa Ann Moss Degrenia) Kristen Herlihy

One: When the waves rise high above our ability to see your face...

All: Still my soul, Lord Jesus, calm the storm in me.

One: When the howling wind and the pouring rain drown out the sound of your voice...

All: Still my soul, Lord Jesus, calm the storm in me.

One: When the thunder and the lightning distract us from Your presence in every circumstance...

All: Still my soul, Lord Jesus, calm the storm in me that I may re-member in your presence that I may be light in the chaos that I may be of use to you in your saving and restoring work. Amen.

One: Let us lift our voices in song and join in worship together.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen.

Anthem Movement 2 from Jazz Gloria [1994] Rob Landes/traditional "Gloria" text

Lord, Jesus Christ, only son of the Father.
Lord God, Lamb of God you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us.
You are seated at the right hand of the Father. Receive our prayer.
Lord, Jesus Christ, only son of the Father...

Prayers of the People (Adapted from “Invitation to Trust” by C Burkholder.) Pam Budner

One: In every storm there are choices to be made. Will we interiorize the storm or Jesus’ peace? Let us pray now as people of faith: When storms of fire and volcanic eruptions, floods and drought ravage our planet, its people and its wildlife, threatening the balance of Mother Nature, we hear the Redeemer’s invitation:

All: Be still. Be calm. Be at peace.

One: When virulent viruses threaten the lives of the world’s people and challenge struggling health infrastructures, we hear the Redeemer’s invitation:

All: Be still. Be calm. Be at peace.

One: When controversial issues and divisive interests threaten the tenants of our nation’s Constitution and impair the vision of our leadership, we hear the Redeemer’s invitation:

All: Be still. Be calm. Be at peace.

One: When our lives feel chaotic and desolate because of illness or sorrow, or the changes of aging, we hear the Redeemer’s invitation:

All: Be still. Be calm. Be at peace.

One: Please take a moment to pray in silence for a person or oneself in the midst of a storm. (silence)

One: Be still. Be calm. Be at peace.

All: Help us to know, O God, that the one who calmed the dangerous sea is present with us, cares for us, and can calm the stormy waters of our lives. Help us to trust more fully and more deeply in you. We pray in the name of Jesus, who invites us to be at peace. Amen

Offertory Rev. Judy Arnold

*Doxology NCH #780

Accessibility & Navigation

We have an inductive hearing loop for those whose hearing aids have Telecoil. Listening devices are also available in the back. For our coffee hour in Chidley Hall, an elevator is located out the doors to the right of the front chancel area and down the hall. Please ask a greeter if you need assistance. We have signs and laminated maps to help guide you around our building.

Childcare

Children are always welcome in the sanctuary! We appreciate the sounds of little ones among us. If you'd prefer, there are trained caregivers in our nursery on the floor beneath the sanctuary. Ask a greeter if you need help finding it.

Family Room

There is also a comfortable room outfitted with a changing table, toys, rocking chairs, couches, a water bubbler and a video link to the service for when you need more room to attend to your family. It is located just outside the doors to the right of the front chancel area.

Ripley Presents: Through an Open Window

Friday, January 31, Ripley Chapel transformed once again - this time to an art space. Our first Art exhibit is entitled Through an Open Window. Five church members and friends of the church are exhibiting their work. The pieces include mosaic, fabric, oil and acrylic and even a painting on glass. We had a lively and well attended opening accompanied by a lavish reception.

If you weren't able to be there, don't worry. Ripley is open daily from 9:00 to 3:00. Information about the artists is on the table at the entrance. Don't miss this splendid expression of the life and love through art.

Divine Yoga

Due to the art exhibit, we are moving yoga to the Palmer Room for one more week. After Valentine's day, it will be back to Ripley Chapel.

The Open Door of Blessing

A contemplative retreat, Saturday March 14, 10am to 2pm, Ripley Chapel.

The Sermon on the Mount calls us out and challenges us spiritually. And yet it also helps us not be a pain ... a religious, judgmental bore! Jesus invites us not to be quick to judge by using poetic images, baffling proverbs, and a set of blessings that are anything but obvious.

Because of this quality I find the blessing list in Jesus' first sermon well designed for contemplation. He invites us to look at God in everyday life. And because Jesus' big topic is blessing, his beatitudes are full of magic and grace!

Kathleen Zagata and I are going to make this retreat right sized for Ripley Chapel. There will be moments of quiet, times of scripture and artistic enrichment, conversation, and connection. I hope you can set aside time for reflection this Lent and that this retreat may serve your needs for time apart. ~Jonathan Goodell
Registration through March 10. Register by brochure available at coffee hour, or with this QR code.

Call for Deacons

Interested in serving the church in a meaningful and fun way that makes you feel more connected to the congregation and deepens your faith? Please consider joining our team of Deacons! The position is flexible, rewarding, and collaborative...and you'll expand your vocabulary, with words like "narthex" and "bobeches!"

Also this year, after thoughtful and prayerful consideration, we invite Life Deacons to consider an additional term on the Diaconate. If interested, we believe your experience and know-how would be a tremendous benefit. If you'd like to discuss, explore, or ask questions about serving as a Deacon, please reach out to any current member of the Diaconate. We'd love to talk with you.
