

Order of Worship - Trinity Sunday - June 7, 2020

Prelude Nun bitten wir, den heiligen Geist (BuxWV 209) Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707)

Welcome & Call to Worship Rev. Will Burhans

Opening Hymn Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty Pilgrim Hymnal, #251
(vv. 1, 2, 4)

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee;
Holy, holy, holy! merciful and mighty;
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

Holy, holy, holy! All the saints adore thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,
Which wert and art, and evermore shalt be.

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name in earth and sky and sea;
Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty;
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

Call to Confession Michelle Crawford

Prayer of Confession

You know O God, how far we can fall from the true and beautiful paths that you have set before the human race. You have called us into a community of rich diversity and equality and yet we have continued to tear ourselves asunder with racial divides too often privileging white skin over black and brown skin. You have called us into a respectful relationship with the earth and yet we have too often polluted and plundered her beauty. You have made our bodies to be nourished by the good fruits of your earth, but we abuse your animal kingdom for the sake of our unbridled appetites. You call us toward continued growth and transformation and yet we become too comfortable and complacent with where we are and refuse to learn from our history and so repeat old patterns that lead to death. Forgive us O God and show us the way that leads to life. Help us rediscover the true and beautiful paths that you have set before us... before it is too late. We pray in Jesus' name.

Hymn

Creator God, Creating Still

New Century Hymnal #278

Creator God, creating still, by will and word and deed,
Create a new humanity to meet the present need.

Redeemer God, redeeming still, with overflowing grace,
Pour out your love on us, through us, make this a holy place.

Great Triune God, for this new day we need your presence still.
Create, redeem, sustain us now to do your work and will.

Benediction
