Prelude "Blessed Be Your Name" Julia and Lucy Page

Welcome & Call to Worship Rev. Will Burhans

Opening Hymn O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing New Century Hymnal, #42

O for a thousand tongues to sing my great Redeemer's praise,
The glories ever echoing the triumphs of God's grace!

My gracious Savior and my God, assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad the honors of your name.

Jesus! the name that calms our fears, that bids our sorrows cease
Is music in the sinner's ears, is life, and health, and peace!

Glory to God, and love and praise be ever, ever given
By all the saints in every age, the church in earth and heaven.

Closing Hymn Blest Be the Tie That Binds Pilgrim Hymnal, #272

Blest be the tie that binds Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds Is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one, Our comforts and our cares.

We share each other's woes, Each other's burdens bear,

And often for each other flows The sympathizing tear.

When we are called to part It gives us inward pain,
But we shall still be joined in heart, And hope to meet again.

Benediction

Please keep these people in your prayers:

Family and friends of Polly Keppler, in their grief.

Suzy Reno, for comfort and relief from the pain of a cracked rib.

Marie Flannery, friend of Lisa Loughlin and Julie O'Hara, that her doctors can find a way to access the mass wrapped around her organs. And that her spirits stay high as she waits.

Jane Ring Frank and Stephen Cole, for healing.

Sarah Hebb Carpenter, for successful surgery and healing.

A prayer of mourning for all those who have died of COVID19, as Renée Graham described them in The Globe on 5/12/2020 they are: "...health care workers, military veterans, doting grandparents, church folk, Holocaust survivors, a man who helped liberate a concentration camp, cancer survivors, bikers, lawmakers, grocery store workers, neurobiologists, barbers, meat plant workers, accountants, truck and bus drivers, security guards and educators."

For all the Black Lives that have been extra-judicially and violently extinguished.

Olivia, for healing and help finding her way back to recovery.

All of the front line healthcare workers and first responders, for their safety.

Rev. Lucy Sanders, for healing.

Bruce Lauterwasser, for continued healing.

Susan Zimmerman, Julianne's mother, For stabilization & relief from pain; and comfort for her family.
