

Confronting the Crises in our Backyards

The triple threat of racism, climate change, and the COVID pandemic

A conversation with Rev. Mariama White-Hammond, founding pastor, New Roots AME Church

Saturday,
January 9th
10-noon
on Zoom

The Congregational Church of Weston invites you to join us for this virtual event, part of our Let's Talk series. Rev. White-Hammond will speak about the ways that climate change and pandemic have disproportionately impacted communities of color in Boston, and help us start a discussion about how we might begin to address these issues.
